Course: Coastal Navigation October 2018

Tuesday evening course. Includes GPS, AIS and Chartplotter usage

Overview: Our Coastal Navigation Course starts with developing your understanding of navigation charts, buoyage and traditional navigation techniques and continues through to applying these important principles to newer navigation aids such as GPS, Chartplotters and AIS. As accurate navigation is a core element of your marine safety, this course is highly recommended for all skippers and crew of cruising & racing yachts and powerboats.

Format: 6 x 3 hour lecture sessions on Tuesday evenings 1900 to 2200 hours

Dates: 16. 23. 30. October & 13. 20. 27. November 2018.

Course fee: $385 includes extensive handouts, use of our classroom navigation equipment and the provided navigation chart (AUS143) valued at $35, which students retain. Additional chart navigation equipment such as a Breton protractor and dividers are recommended.

Please note: To pass this course you will be required to attend the majority of the six sessions and to undertake a final test. Some home study is required. The course is limited to a maximum of 14 students
